Bad Stomach Makes Bad Blood.

You can not make sweet butter in a foul, unclean churn. The stomach serves as a churn in which to agitate, work up and disintegrate our food as it is being digested. If it be weak, sluggish and foul the result will be torpid, sluggish liver and bad, impure blood.

The ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery are just such as best serve to correct and cure all such derangements. It is made up without a drop of alcohol in its composition; chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead of the commonly employed alcohol. Now this glycerine is of itself a valuable medicine, instead of a deleterious agent like alcohol, especially in the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia and the various forms of indigestion. Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says of it:

"In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. * * * It is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon enfeebled, disordered stomachs; especially if there is ulceration or catarrhal gastritis (catarrhal inflammation of stomach), it is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of pyrosis (heartburn) and excessive gastric acidity. It is useful in chronic intestinal dyspepsia, especially the flatulent variety, and in certain forms of chronic constipation, stimulating the secretory and excretory functions of the intestinal glands."

When combined, in just the right proportions, with Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherrybark, Queen's root, Bloodroot and Mandrake root, or the extracts of these, as in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, there can be no doubt of its great efficacy in the cure of all stomach, liver and intestinal disorders and derangements. These several ingredients have the strongest endorsement in all such cases of such eminent medical leaders as Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, Chicago; Prof. Hobart A. Hare, M. D., of Medical Department, University of Pa.; Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., Medical Department, University of New York; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., Hahnemann Medical College, Chicago; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D. and Prof. John King, M. D., Authors of the American Dispensatory, and scores of others among the leading medical men of our land.

Who can doubt the curative virtues of a medicine the ingredients of which have such a professional endorsement?

Constipation cured by Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. One or two a dose.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablet—coaxes blood pressure away from pain centers. Its effect is charming, pleasingly delightful. Gently, though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure.

If it's painful periods with women, same cause.

If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 20 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the unnatural blood pressure.

Bruise your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense.

We sell at 25 cents, and cheerfully recommend

Nicaragua and Honduras.

A dispatch from Mexico City says that the Department has made public the following note:

"President Diaz, acting on the direct suggestion of President Roosevelt, has sent a note to the governments of Costa Rica, Salvador and Guatemala, asking them to use every effort to prevent an armed clash between Nicaragua and Honduras, with the intimation that past treaties must be lived up to, and that their dispute must be referred to an arbitration board.

Carrying out the wishes of the State Department that a couple of American naval vessels be kept in Central American waters, the Navy Department has dispatched the gunboat Marietta from Guantanamo to Greytown, on the Gulf coast of Nicaragua, in addition to the cruiser Chicago which has been sent down the coast to Acajulta, Honduras, so that within a day or two there will be an American warship on each side of the scene of the threatened trouble. The Yorktown, now at Mare Island, is not to go to Central America, but as soon as her repairs are completed will rejoin the Pacific fleet in the neighborhood of Magdalena Bay in the maneuvers and target practice.

It is stated that the purpose of sending these ships to Central America is similar to what which inspired the order to the Marblehead last year—namely, to have a ship at the disposal of the American ministers if they should find it necessary to travel up and down the coast in these countries where communication by regular channels is so limited. Also, they will, of course, protect any American property that may be endangered if disorders break out.

It's a pleasure to tell our readers about a Cough Cure like Dr. Shoop's. For years Dr. Shoop has fought against the use of Opium, Chloroform, or other unsafe ingredients commonly found in Cough remedies. Dr. Shoop, it seems, has welcomed the Pure Food and Drug Law recently enacted, for he has worked along similar lines many years. For nearly 20 years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure contains ers have had a warning printed on them against Opium and narcotic poisons. He has thus made it possible for mothers to protect their children by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Anti-American Sentiment in Cuba.

Gov. Magoon received a cablegram from Secretary Taft today, directing the postponement of the decree providing for an increase from 6,000 to 12,000 men of the rural guard of Cuba, pending the presentation of protests by the liberals.

Objections to this plan of increase were voiced at a meeting held Thursday night in Havana under the presidency of Gen. Guas and attended by a number of army officers. At this meeting Gen. Enrique Loynaz del Castillo bitterly denounced the United States, and predicted that the people of Cuba eventually would be compelled to resist American domination, when the speaker hoped he would have the honor of leading the patriotic army.

Gen. Estonoz a prominent colored leader, was the only speaker to approve the proposed increased in the armed forced of the republic, but he demanded recognition of negroes in the ranks of the army, and intimated that the negroes were prepared to fight for their political rights.

The meeting adopted resolutions protesting against any increase in the armed forces, the formation of a militia of any kind, and the enlistment in the army of other than native Cubans. Gen. Del Castillo predicts an influx of American immigrants, which, he declared, would result in the Americanization of the rural guard and consequent military oppression of the Cubans.

Throughout the entire meeting a strong anti-American sentiment predominated. A protest was made against imposing upon Cuba the burden of the maintenance of this proposed standing army. A number of the speakers contended that the fractious members of the rural guard had been enlisted from the police force.

A committee was appointed to call on Gov. Magoon and present to him the protest of the meeting.

Explosion on Torpedo Boat.

A dispatch from Lorient, France, says as a result of an explosion on board torpedo boat No. 339 of the French navy yesterday morning nine men are dead and two men are injured. Torpedo boat No. 339 was launched but a short time ago, and at the time of the accident she was undergoing, prior to being placed in commission, her full-power steam trial in the roadstead. A technical naval committee was on board at the time.

The trial was successful, but as the boat was returning to her anbcorage a safety tube forming part of the evaporation apparatus burst, and as a result a mass of flame was forced into the stokehole where the engineer, a quartermaster and nine stokers were at work. The engineer and eight of the stokers were instantly burned to death. Their bodies were practically reduced to cinders. The other stoker was severely injured.

The quartermaster succeeded in escaping from the hole with superficial burns only. The reason for the accident is that the automatic doors that should have closed to prevent the return of the flames to the stokehole did not work.

Married Sweetheart of Boyhood Days.

The wedding in Washington Wednesday of Mrs. Minnie Slater and William H. Walton is the culmination of a pretty romance that had its beginning in Raleigh, N. C., 30 years ago. The bride was at that time the 16-year-old daughter of John Gorman, of Raleigh. About that time Walton left his home in the interior of the State and took up his residence at the capital city. Chance guided the young folks together, and as they grew older they became sweethearts. Then a slight dispute arose, and Walton went away.

Later the lovers corresponded and a reconciliation was almost effected. William Slater, one of Raleigh's prominent young business men, about this time, courted Minnie Gorman and won her. They were married and lived happily together until her husband's death. With her mother Mrs. Slater moved to Richmond and then to Washington, after the death of her husband, in order to better educate her children. There she found her lost love.

Mrs. Walton's father was at one time adjutant general of North Carolina. Mrs. Walton has six brothers, all of whom were present at the wedding dinner, as was also Mrs. Pratt, wife of an official of the Southern Railway at Atlanta, Ga., and a sister of the bride.

AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING, FEB. 9, 1907.

HON. JOHN F. RIXEY, whose failing health had caused much regret and no little apprehension throughout his district and State, paid the debt of nature this morning at the residence of his brother, Surgeon General Rixey, in Washington. While it was known to many of his intimate friends that his health was steadily declining, his immediate death was not anticipated, and the announcement of his demise will be a sad shock to all who have known him or who have in any way had intercourse with him. Naturally of a pleasant demeanor, easy of approach and kind and considerate toward all, his popularity was of a steady and vigorous growth. While he will be sadly missed throughout the entire Eighth Congressional district, his death means much to Alexandria, which city he always had uppermost in his mind, and for whose welfare he began to work from the day he entered the halls of Congress. The present enlarged and modern postoffice, custom house and United States court room will be a lasting monument to his memory. The fact that the work of constructing Mount Vernon Avenue and the proposed Memorial Bridge has been delayed was through no fault of his, as he concentrated all his power and influence toward the achievement of these designs. In fact, he laid a foundation which others may yet utilize to the end for which he so earnestly aimed. With the shadows of death ever and anon crossing his path, he uncomplainingly listened to all who invoked his aid, and the many who sought his help and advice felt they had a friend whose sympathy and succor they could rely upon. While the outward man was perishing, the inner man was alive to the interests of those whom he represented, and while no longer able to appear in his accustomed seat in Congress through his secretary, he had all the business of his constituents presented to the House and suitable disposition made of the same. The wheels of life at last stand still. He has finished his course, with the deserved plaudit, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

THE WAR now being waged by certain elements in England against the House of Lords is becoming more pronounced daily. A dispatch from London says that the attorney general, Sir John Walton, who presumably spoke with the full knowledge of the intentions of the government, made an important declaration in a speech at Leeds Thursday night, foreshadowing the government programme for a reform of the House of Lords. In the course of his remarks the attorney general said that the "grim and serious work" upon which the liberals were entering "would mean a revolution and involve two or three dissolutions." He added that the House of Lords was entirely "out of harmony with modern democratic institutions and must go. The government would endeavor to give effect to the will of the people by bills, which the peers would probably throw out, leading to a combination of the crown and people to defeat the aristocracy." Attorney General Walton recognized that the struggle would be prolonged and exciting, and would mean a complete re-arrangement of the constitutional and political forces. The utility of two legislative branches in a country has ever been recognized by people who have made a close study of political economy, and in no country in the world is this need more apparent than in England. Two houses of parliament afford safeguards to hasty and unwise legislation, one acting as a check wheel to the other. Shortly after the United States threw off the apron strings of the mother country General Washington was entertaining a foreign representative who was a violent believer in dangerous republican dreams, and while they were at the table, the foreigner was especially severe on the maintenance of dual legislative branches. He asked Washington what particular good would result to the United States by having a Senate and House of Representatives. The foreigner, in the meantime was attempting to sip his coffee which was boiling hot, and eventually poured it into a saucer that it might cool. Washington, who had been more of a listener than a debater with his guest, looked at the decoction in the saucer, and told the foreigner that the best answer he could give him was illustrated by his inability to swallow the hot coffee. The liquid, he said, comes hot from the cup, which may represent the commons; the saucer, which cools it, is a type of the other branch of Congress which tones down the work of many ill-advised representatives of the masses.

THE world will not regard with approval the confirmation of the sentence upon Admiral Nebogatoff of the Russian navy and his fellow officers and their actual imprisonment for a long term of years. Military law required their trial and perhaps their technical conviction. Common sense and humanity require the extraordinary circumstances of the battle of the Sea of Japan to be taken into consideration for the modification of their sentences. Every informed and intelligent observer knows the Russians could not possibly have won that battle; that while they might possibly have inflicted more losses upon the Japanese, such losses could not have been sufficient to alter or to delay the outcome of the war, and that, therefore, further resistance would have meant nothing but fruitless sacrifice of life. For the good of the service officers may be condemned for not making that sacrifice. In the name of humanity they should be pardoned

A DISPATCH from Boston going the rounds of the press states that Mrs. Anna Weaver Hibbs, a granddaughter of General Robert E. Lee, and Archibald R. Harman, who is related to ex-President Cleveland, were married in Providence, R. I., on Wednesday. General Robert E. Lee had only four grandchildren, none of whom are married. The claim made by Mrs. Hibbs, of Boston, is, therefore, untenable.

AT THE rate Russian governors are being assassinated it remains only a question of time as to how long the supply will last.

From Washington.

Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.

Washington, Feb. 9

Mr. John F. Rixey, of the 8th Virginia District, died at 9 o'clock today at the home of his brother, Surgeon General Rixey of the navy, in this city. He had been a sufferer for months from throat trouble. His death had been expected for several weeks by intimate friends but not by the public. When announcement of the death was made to the House shortly after it convened today it came as a distinct shock to most of the members. Mr. Rixey was 52 years old, and had served in the House ten years. He was a member of the committee on naval affairs, and oddly the naval appropriation bill prepared by this committee was before the House today. Mr. Rixey's home was at Culpeper, Va. After agreeing to consider all general debate on the naval appropriation bill closed and adopting resolutions of sorrow, the House today adjourned at 12:15 as a further mark of respect to the deceased member. The following committee was appointed to attend the burial at Culpeper Monday: The Virginia delegation, and Representatives Foss, Illinois; Meyer, Louisiana; Wm. Kitchen, North Carolina; Gregg, Texas; Williams, Mississippi; DeArmond, Missouri, and Burton, Ohio. Funeral services will be held at the Rixey residence at 1518 K street, N. W., in this city tomorrow evening at 3 o'clock.

Truman H. Newberry, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, will leave Washington tonight on a three weeks tour of inspection to southern navy yards and stations. He will be accompanied by Rear Admiral Capps, chief naval constructor, and Capt. Vreeland, his naval aid; also by Mrs. Newberry and Mrs. Metcalf, wife of the Secretary of the Navy.

Changes in the organization of the engineering and construction department of the Isthmian Canal Commission on the canal zone, as reported by Chief Engineer Stevens, were announced today as follows: Joseph Ripley, principal assistant engineer, appointed chief engineer, vice J. G. Sullivan, resigned; F. B. Maltby, division engineer, with supervision over the Colon, Chagres and La Boca divisions, appointed principal assistant engineer; William Corrig, division engineer, transferred from the La Boca division to the Colon and Chagres divisions; W. C. Comber, resident engineer, appointed division engineer in charge of La Boca division.

The army appropriation bill will have first call next week in the Senate and will be followed by the District of Columbia appropriation bill. Perhaps the most interesting event of the past week at the Senate end of the Capitol was the investigation by the Senate military committee into the shooting affair at Brownsville, Tex. There is a general impression among members of the Senate committee that if any of the soldiers did the shooting they belonged to Company C. The officers of that company will be examined next week and their testimony is looked forward to with interest. A vote on the naval appropriation bill is expected next week in the House. On Monday bills relating to the District of Columbia will be taken up. This will give to the House an opportunity to act on the Murphy anti-tipping bill, prohibiting tipping at public places in the District. The committee on the District of Columbia will urge its passage. After action on the naval appropriation bill, it had been planned to take up the postoffice appropriation bill. Chairman Overstreet, in charge of the bill, has been called away from the Capitol, and if he does not return by that time, the ship-subsidy bill will be considered during the remainder of the week.

The State Department today received a cablegram from United States Consul General Rodgers at Shanghai, China, in which he declares the famine situation in the Chinese Empire is no better. Thousands and thousands are still in need of food and clothing and many are dying every day.

Eleven bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church made a protest to the Senate today against the plan of the managers of the Jamestown Exposition to have the "greatest military spectacle in the world." It is that the triennial meeting of the general convention of the church will be held at Jamestown at the time of the exposition, and that at the same time the church will celebrate the ter-centennial establishment of the church in America, and the bishops feel that for this and other reasons the display will be objectionable.

Secretary of War William H. Taft, who is a Yale alumnus, leaves this city today to attend the annual Yale banquet to be given tonight at the Yale Club in New York city.

Lady Cook, who as Tennessee Claflin was a famous woman's suffragist in war time days called at the White House today to lay before President Roosevelt a plea for woman's right to the ballot. Lady Cook was accompanied by Olive Logan, the authoress life. The President listened to Lady Cook's argument but did not promise his support.

Mayor Schmitz, accompanied by Representatives Kahn and Hayes, of California, called at the White House early today and made arrangements for a general conference with the President at 3 o'clock this afternoon, in which all the visitors from San Francisco together with the Secretary of State and the Secretary of the Navy, as well as the California Senators and Representatives will participate. Afterward the Mayor had a long talk with Secretary Root at the State Department.

Senator Burkette, of Nebraska, was today selected by the vice president to read Washington's farewell address in the Senate February 22.

To the extent of its jurisdiction the War Department has given its consent to the construction of a suspension bridge across the Potomac river at Great Falls and the probabilities are that a structure of that kind may be in place by the coming summer.

Chairman Payne, of the House ways and means committee, after a visit to the President yesterday expressed the opinion that there was no chance at this session of Congress for the enactment of legislation increasing the compensation of government employes.

The Pope yesterday morning gave an audience to Bishop Bonacum, of Lincoln, Nebraska, who tendered expressions of sympathy for himself, the clergy and the faithful of his diocese, because of the sad condition of the church in France. The Pope was very affable, and appeared to be in excellent health. He warmly thanked the bishop. He said the conduct of American Catholics afforded him deep consolation, especially in these trying times.

Henry Dickerson was shot and killed by James Harris, at Vaugh, N. C., yesterday. The men met in front of a store and began jesting. Angry words followed and Dickerson cursed Harris, who said: "If you curse me again I will kill you." Dickerson repeated the offensive words and Harris, who had a shotgun in his hands, fired point blank at Dickerson, the buckshot blowing off the top of Dickerson's head. Dickerson was 25 years of age and married. Harris is 20 years old and unmarried. Harris was arrested.

Mrs. L. M. Gillette, mother of the condemned slayer of Grace Brown, yesterday called upon County Judge Ward, at Utica, N. Y., who, while District Attorney, prosecuted her son, and asked him if he really was sincere in his belief of Chester's guilt. Mr. Ward firmly told her he was. "Well, that being so," said Mrs. Gillette, "I will abandon my boy to his fate, rather than devote any further efforts in securing a new trial for him. I will return to my home in Denver and pray for his soul"

After a little more than an hour's deliberation the jury in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia in the case of Mrs. Jennie L. May, who shot Lucien Conen, a member of the United States Marine Band, on the street in Washington September 27, 1905, yesterday returned a verdict against the defendant on the charge of assault with intent to kill. Pending appeal Mrs. May was released on $5,000 bond. Her defense was temporary insanity. The fact that Conen lived after the shooting for more than a year and a day, as prescribed by the code of the District of Columbia, precluded the charge of murder. The penalty under the verdict is from 1 to 15 years in the penitentiary.

JUSTICE KILLED BY BOMB.

Robert Cortez, justice of the peace, and one of the best-known Italians of Paterson, N. J., was frightfully injured last night at his office, by an infernal machine, and died shortly before midnight at St. Joseph's Hospital. His arms and legs were broken and lacerated, and there were long gashes in his back. His face and head were torn in many places. His ante-mortem statement was taken. The office was badly wrecked.

Cortez went to his office at 7 p. m. where his twelve-year-old son, Robert, gave him an express package that had arrived from Newark by the American Express Company. The package was about ten inches square and about four inches thick. It was simply addressed "Robert Cortez, Justice of the Peace, Passaic street, Paterson, N. J"

Cortez stood by his desk while he removed the wrapping paper, in doing which the package exploded.

The action of the explosion was downward. A large hole six feet square was blown about four feet toward the door. Cortez was blown toward the door and tumbled into the cellar. He was covered by plaster and the debris of the office furniture when a policeman, dashed into the building.

The injured man was not unconscious. He was taken to the hospital within twenty minutes after the explosion. Cortez's son was only slightly injured from the explosion.

The front of the place was blown out and the ceiling and side walls of the office were shorn of their plaster. Not a particle of the package was left. It is known that it was prepaid, and that it was from Newark.

Cortez has been of great assistance to the police in the Italian cases, and has assisted them on numerous occasions in running Italian criminals to earth.

The School Books Investigation

The legislative schoolbook investigating committee adjourned in Richmond, yesterday, to reassemble at a day not designated. The evidence is all in, and each of the three members will bring to the next meeting the draft of a report, and a composite paper will thereafter be agreed on. There is no likelihood of a minority report, even though Senator Stroude dissented here and there from certain lines of procedure followed by his colleagues, Chairman Byrd and Delegate Cox, of Richmond. The feature of the session yesterday was the testimony of subordinates in the office of Librarian Kennedy. E. S. Evans reiterated his previous testimony as to Mr. Kennedy's statement to him relative to the "history" offer. Mrs. C. E. Minor, wife of an ex-judge of a Richmond court, who is now employed in the library, testified that Mr. Kennedy instructed her on December 3 that no more books should be purchased from Richmond dealers while the investigation was on.

THE THAW CASE.

The chief counsel for Harry K. Thaw, Delphin M. Delmas, displayed yesterday a sample of the adroitness in the management of criminal defenses which made his fortune and fame in California. It was a master stroke upon the part of the lawyer, and did not escape comment in the courtroom. This is what happened: Evelyn Nesbit Thaw was on the witness stand in the afternoon being examined by Mr. Delmas. She had related, with great detail, the long conversation between herself and husband, in which she had set forth plainly her reasons for refusing to marry Thaw. The drift of the examination was toward White's conduct with other young girls, as the stories of this conduct had been related to Evelyn. Mr. Delmas had secured a most sensational answer to his question as to whether or not the witness had learned if other young girls who had suffered the same fate that she suffered at the hands of White. Mrs. Thaw answered that she had and Mr. Delmas was upon the point of ascertaining how many young girls Mrs. Thaw had heard were ruined by White when Mr. Jerome arose and protested against the line of examination. At this point there was a long discussion between counsel, at the close of which, after another witness had been called, Mr. Delmas would have proceeded in a modified way with the examination of Mrs. Thaw.

He realized, however, the great value to the defense of the answer which Mrs. Thaw had made to his last question, and shrewdly asked for adjournment an hour and a half before the usual hour, knowing that the answer to his last question would leave a deeper impression upon the minds of the jury than he would be permitted to bring out in any further examination of his witness that day. Thus the jurors are left with the last question and answer distinct in their memories and with the impression to deepen with the week-end adjournment. Lawyers say that this move upon the part of Delmas revealed his keenness in the particular line in which he is famous—that of creating and intensifying a favorable impression upon the minds of the jury.

For the first time an intimation was given yesterday of the point, which, if established, will probably result in the acquittal of Harry Thaw under the unwritten law—that Stanford White was unwilling to give up Evelyn Nesbit Thaw even after she had become the wife of his rival, and that he sought, even after it had become evident that she was trying to live down her blackened past, to drag her down again to the depths from which she had been lifted by her genuine love for Thaw.

Day by day a number of Thaw's rambling and unintelligible love letters to Evelyn Nesbit were produced to show his mental condition.

Thaw executed a will the day of his marriage devising all his wealth to her.

The defense attempted to introduce Harry Thaw's will, said to contain names of girls wronged by White.

The court adjourned with Mrs. Thaw still on the stand, and her direct examination will be resumed Monday.

District Attorney Jerome is prevented from attacking Mrs. Thaw's testimony and undermining its influence with the jury, because the New York law provides that where insanity is pleaded as a defense, the prosecution is precluded from controverting any statements which have been made to the defendant, whether true or false.

The Thaw Trial.

New York, Feb. 9.—When the trial of Harry K. Thaw is resumed on Monday, his counsel, Delphin Delmas, will seek to place in evidence the will of the Pittsburger with the view of proving by its strange and fantastic provisions that when the will was drawn up, on the night of Thaw's marriage to Evelyn Nesbit, on April 4, 1905, he was not mentally responsible because of Stanford White's pursuit of Evelyn.

Dreading death at the hands of an assassin, Harry Thaw, in his will, directed that a fund of $50,000 be set aside for the prosecution of his murderer should it be established that he did not die from natural causes. This provision of the will mentions no name, but the codicil makes it evident that he feared Stanford White.

This remarkable document provides that a fund of $75,000 be set aside by the trustees of his estate to care for chorus girls and others who had been subjected to the same treatment at the hands of Stanford White as Evelyn Nesbit. Harry Thaw mentions the names of several girls in the codicil of the will, who he believed had been wronged by the architect.

To his wife, Harry Thaw left the entire sum of his income which was to revert to the Thaw estate in the event of her death.

An astonishing feature of the will is that Thaw makes Mrs. Charles J. Holman, mother of Evelyn Nesbit, a beneficiary, though Thaw's letter to his counsel, just before the marriage, indicated his intense dislike of Mrs. Holman.

Judge Delmas contends that the introduction of the will with its strange provisions will bear out every plea of the defense, for the killing of Stanford White—justification, self defense and insanity. Judge Delmas is confident that the will will be properly identified and placed in evidence on Monday.

Evelyn Nesbit Thaw will be on the witness stand the greater part of next week. Her direct testimony will hardly be concluded before Monday night and District Attorney Jerome will take at least three days to his cross examination.

Harry K. Thaw will furnish the culminating sensation in his own trial by taking the witness stand and delivering the final blow in his own defense for the slaying of Architect Stanford White.

An error of law has crept into the trial of Harry Thaw that, in the event of his conviction will insure him another trial for the killing of Stanford White. It is said the opinion is expressed by three justices of the Supreme Court, now sitting here. The names of the justices are withheld for obvious reasons. This opinion is based upon the action of Evelyn in the leaning forward in the witness chair and whispering to the prosecutor the names of men and women whom she knew in company with White.

Suffocated in a Mine.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Feb. 9.—Seven bodies of miners have been taken out of the Wanamie colliery of the Wilkes-Barre Coal Company, the men having been suffocated by the burning of the timber in the mines. The victims are nearly all foreigners. One other man is said to be dead in the mine. The fire started in some unknown manner in the timbering of the No. 3 slope of No. 19 colliery of the Lehigh & Wilkes-Barre Company. The blaze itself was a serious proposition, but more horrible was the fact that behind the flames were seven men who were suffocated by smoke and gas while struggling in vain to find some egress from the trap in which they were caught. Everything known to mining ingenuity and engineering skill was done in an effort to rescue the men. There were 300 men working in the slope when the fire started, but it is believed all but eight were able to escape. Those beyond the fire, who did not rush through the smoke and flames when first warned, were trapped and all smothered to death.

Count Boni to Protest.

Paris Feb. 9.—Count Boni de Castellane, former husband of Madam Anna Gould, does not propose to give up his wife and the millions from which he was separated as a consequence of her securing a divorce if he can prevent it. He will fight in the higher courts the decree given Madam Gould. The first steps in this direction were taken today when an appeal in his behalf was filed. Boni has sunk into insignificance since Madam Gould divorced him. With heavy debts hanging over him and impoverished resources, he has been unable to cut the figure in Paris society which is the delight of his heart. Despite the re-airing of the disagreeable facts about his treatment of his wife which an appeal will necessitate, Boni is prepared to suffer this humiliation if he can fill his empty pockets and the appeal will be carried through the courts of last resort.

Papers Denied Transmission.

Ottawa, Ont. Feb. 9.—The Postmaster General has announced in the House that newspapers publishing the details of the Thaw trial would be denied transmission through the Canadian mails. This statement was evoked by a complaint from Dr. Stockton, member from St. John, N. B., of the publication in a local newspaper of Mrs. Thaw's testimony.

Trolley Cars Collide.

Philadelphia, Feb. 9.—Two trolley cars collided this morning at the Pennsylvania Railroad crossing on south Broad street, and sixty people were injured. All the injured were employes of the League Island navy yard and were on their way to work. There were over 100 men crowded into the car which is one of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company's vehicles, when the motorman lost control of it. It dashed down the hill and crashed into another car which had stopped on the same track ahead. Too men were tossed about in all directions, cut with glass and injured by splintered wood. The cars were smashed almost to kindling wood. A score of the injured were taken to nearby hospitals. Others were removed to their homes, or proceeded to their work after their injuries were dressed.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Feb. 9.—The stock market this morning followed along the lines of the reaction in the last hour yesterday with traders selling out stock they bought at higher levels and forcing moderate declines all around the room. Outside of this liquidation, the trading was without feature, except for an advance in Sugar Refining, which opened at an advance of ½ per cent. The railroad list generally declined from ¼ to a little over a point. At the end of the first hour the market was quiet and trading almost wholly professional. Railroads and other bonds steady.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, Feb. 9.

SENATE.

The Senate this afternoon heard a brief but spirited interchange between Mr. Warren, chairman of the committee on military affairs and Mr. Burkett. It was over the provision in the army appropriation bill relating to the exchange of small arms. The Nebraskan thought it gave too great a discretion to the War Department. He wanted to know how many reserve guns the government now had. Mr. Warren replied that it was not within the duty of a senator to count the guns. He further explained rather warmly that it would not be fitting for him, because of his position, "to tell here where all the world can hear, how many guns and balls and how much powder the government holds in reserve."

Mr. Burkett was on his feet in an instant. He charged the senator from Wyoming with attempting to lecture him and declared that he was responsible to himself alone for the questions he asked, so long as he confined himself within the rules of the Senate.

The Senate adopted a House resolution directing the Secretary of Commerce and Labor to investigate and report what existing patents have been granted to officers and employes of the government upon articles or processes used by the government, after amending it to include a report upon the amount of royalties paid to officers or employes.

The Senate passed a bill appropriating $12,000 for the erection of a monument to the memory of General W. H. Harrison, on Tippecanoe battlefield in Indiana.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The Senate passed yesterday the Indian appropriation bill, after striking out the provision giving the Court of Claims final jurisdiction in the claim of the Confederate Band of Ute Indians of Colorado. The army appropriation bill, carrying a total of $81,500,000, was taken up. The army measure was partly read for approval of committee amendments and adjournment was taken shortly before 6 o'clock, when it became apparent that considerable debate was to be occasioned by an amendment to permit the government to receive reduced rates from the railroads on the transportation of troops and army supplies for the army and to allow army officers and their families to accept free transportation. The adoption of this amendment would be a modification of the railroad rate bill passed at the last session of Congress.

After making a new record, by passing 725 private pension bills in an hour and a half, the House began consideration of the naval appropriation bill carrying $95,426,000. Under the order of general debate, speeches were made by Mr. Lamar, of Florida, on the railroad rate bill.

Proposition of the Electric Road

The Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company will submit a proposition to the City Council at its next meeting in connection with their desire to extend their tracks westward on Cameron street to the line of Mr. Benjamin Baggett's property, thence south to King street, and thence westward to Spring Park.

The company offers to pay $150 annually to the city for the franchise; also to grant to the City Council all rights and title to the property on the north side of King street, west of West street, recently acquired by the company, subject, however, to the right of the railway company to occupy the same with its tracks. The company also guarantees to grade Cameron street at such time as the City Council may determine to extend that street westward from West. The company 90 days after the privilege shall have been granted for the use of Cameron street, will construct a spur track on King street from Hooff's run to the eastern embankment (or viaduct) of the Washington-Southern Railway, and will inaugurate and maintain a local car service between the ferry wharf and the viaduct, the car leaving each end of the route every 20 minutes, this service to be operated from 7 a. m. until 10 p. m. daily, or during such hours as may be agreed upon by the Mayor and the railway company. The company also announces its readiness to pave between its tracks and two feet on either side thereof, and lay such rails as may be required, and, further, that should the authorities of Alexandria county grant the requisite permission to construct and maintain a spur track on King street extended to a point opposite the new union station west of the viaduct, the proposed spur track to the eastern side of the abutment will be abandoned, but the local car service mentioned in the proposition will be maintained over the last mentioned spur in the same manner as here-in-before prescribed.

Preparing for the 22d.

Another meeting of the George Washington Birthday Association was held last night to make final arrangements for the celebration on February 22, in honor of the anniversary of the birth of Gen. Washington. The meeting was held in the old Friendship fire engine house on south Alfred street, and was well attended. It was presided over by Mr. A. D. Brockett, the president of the association.

It was decided to hold the banquet at 2 o'clock in Armory Hall. Although the President and the governor of Virginia, who were invited, will be unable to attend, other prominent people are expected as guests of honor, and speech-making will be a feature of the banquet. The band concert will take place between 1 and 5 o'clock, the principal event being at the corner of King and Washington streets. A committee will visit Mount Vernon in the morning and place a wreath of flowers on the tomb of Washington. By order of the Mayor the bells on the public buildings throughout the city will be rung at noon on the day of the celebration.

A called meeting of the Friendship Veteran Fire Association will be held in the rear future, to make arrangements for demonstrating the working of the old Friendship engine. The apparatus, which is operated by hand, will be moved to a point on King street, where the exhibition will take place.

The Weather and the River.

The weather was cold [illegible] last night and the broken ice in the river was frozen into a compact mass this morning. At 7 o'clock the mercury stood at 19°

The steamer Washington arrived up at 7:45 and opened a track in the ice, but after she had passed on to Washington her path froze again and the channel became as motionless as ever.

The steamer Callahan of the ferry line continues to make hourly trips between this city and Washington, arriving and departing about on time.

The steamer Estelle Randall made a trip to Marshall Hall today.

The Firefighter broke up most of the ice on the upper Potomac to Georgetown yesterday morning.

DEATH OF HON. J. F. RIXEY

Hon. John F. Rixey, Congressman from the Eighth district, died at the residence of his brother, Surgeon General P. M. Rixey, in Washington, at 9 o'clock this morning. His death was due to bronchial troubles from which he had long suffered. His funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock. The deceased had been unable to appear in the House of Representatives since the reassembling of Congress last December. He, however, had remained in touch with the business before it and had, through his secretary, Mr. J. G. Hiden, presented measures in the interest, of his constituents, and literally died in the harness.

Mr. Rixey leaves a widow, who was a daughter of the late James Barbour, and four children, Miss Mary Barbour Rixey, Miss Edith Presley Rixey, John Rixey and James Barbour Rixey. The remains of Mr. Rixey will be taken to Culpeper on Monday morning for interment.

John Franklin Rixey was born in Culpeper county, August 1, 1854. He received his primary education in the common schools, and later attended Bethel College and the University of Virginia. He adopted the legal profession, but devoted much of his time to farming, making a close study of that occupation. He was Commonwealth's Attorney for Culpeper for twelve years. His popularity grew with his years, and in 1896 he was nominated by the Congressional convention in this city to succeed the late Elisha Meredith. He proved to be one of the ablest and most untiring representatives ever sent from the district, and was renominated and re-elected to each succeeding Congress, having virtually no opposition. During his ten years' career in Congress he had worked assiduously in the interests of the people of his district, and succeeded in obtaining appropriations for objects which will be monuments to his memory. During the past year failing health made it apparent to his many friends that his life of usefulness was drawing to a close, and the expressions of regret when it was seen that he could no longer appear in his seat in the House came from every section of the 8th district. And now that he has finished his course, it can be truly said of him that he was faithful to the end as he watched over the welfare of his constituents even in the presence of death.

Men's League.

For some months past several of the male members of the First Baptist Church have been discussing the advisability of organizing a Men's League whose object will be the good of the church. The idea is that every member hold himself ready to do anything for the good of the church, and especially for the reaching of men. Various phases of church work will be discussed. It has been determined to organize the league on to-morrow afternoon at the church at 4 o'clock p. m of which notice has been given for several weeks past. Those having the matter in charge hope that every male member of church and congregation will, as far as possible, make an effort to be present at the organization.

A Pretty Dance.

The Alexandria German Club gave their last German before Easter at McBurney's Hall Friday night, and a large number of guests were present from Washington Baltimore, and throughout Virginia, besides those from this city. Under the leadership of Mr. R. H Beverley, many new and attractive figures were introduced. Music was furnished by Schroeder's orchestra, of Washington, and a delightful supper was served at midnight. The chaperons were Mrs. A. P. Brockett, Mrs. Geo Mushbach, Mrs. J. Sidney Douglas, Mrs Carroll W. Ashby, Mrs. Henry F. Robertson, Mrs. George Uhler, Miss Sallie Kemper, and Miss Cora Cochran The last dance of the season to be given by this club will be held Friday, April 5th.

Messrs. J. E. Alexander, E. E. Downham, John H. Trimyer, K. Kemper, Drs. Smith and Lindsey also made appropriated speeches. High Priest H. K. Field acted as toastmaster.

The remains will be taken to Fairfax Courthouse tomorrow and the interment made in the family burying ground at that place.

Death of a Colored Resident.

Harrison Allen, one of the best-known colored residents of the city, died last night of pneumonia at his home on north Washington street. His force of character and the remarkable record he left for untiring industry entitle him to a hearty tribute of respect in these columns. He was a native of Madison county, and was of the old-time type, though singularly alert and progressive in all matters of business. As a result he had accumulated considerable property and lived in comfort. He enjoyed the confidence of the business men of the city with whom he had dealings, and in the many homes that have had occasion to know the value of his capable services he will be affectionately remembered and seriously missed. SATURDAY EVENING, FEB. 9, 1907.

Discrepancies in Dates.

Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw made a mistake herself either in making the affidavit necessary for securing the license to wed Harry K. Thaw or in giving her testimony at the Thaw trial Thursday. When Evelyn and her mother, Mrs. Charles J. Holman, went to the marriage-license clerk in Pittsburg, Pa., on April 4, 1905, to take out the license for her marriage both swore that the prospective bride was born on December 25, 1885. In the affidavit sworn to by Evelyn she further swore that she was "of the full age of 19 years."

On the stand Thursday Mrs. Thaw testified that she was born on December 25, 1884, and repeated the year after a question put to her by Attorney Delmas. If the perjury was committed in taking out the marriage license, many persons in Pittsburg believe that the marriage is invalidated, as the license would certainly be void if secured on a false statement.

"Don't ask me to say anything about the Thaw trial; it is simply killing me."

This message was carried yesterday from the darkened room in the Holman residence, at Brookline, near Pittsburg, where Mrs. Holman is lying in a critical condition from shock and nervous prostration. A maid who answered the door stated that only the nurse and physicians are permitted to see Mrs. Holman, and that it is feared that she may never fully recover.

Lyndhurst Destroyed.

Lyndhurst, the handsome country home of former Postmaster General John Wanamaker, at Chelten Hills, near Jenkintown, Pa., was destroyed by fire last night, entailing a loss estimated at $750,000.

Mr. Wanamaker's home was considered one of the most artistic and valuable of Philadelphia suburban properties. The estate consists of 30 acres, and the house, which, in the main, was of English style of architecture, stood on a hill about 350 yards back from the famous Old York road. The Wanamaker art gallery contained some of the rarest prints and most valuable paintings in existence.

Mr. Wanamaker and his family have been at their winter home, in Philadelphia, and the country place was in charge of a caretaker.

The fire made rapid progress, a few valuable paintings being about the only things saved. Among these were "Christ Before Pilate" and "Christ on Calvary," by Munkacsy. These two paintings are valued at $250,000.

The suburban police and fire companies from Jenkintown, Ogontz, Ashburn and Glenside were called into service, but the water supply was inadequate, and their efforts availed little.

The loss is covered by insurance.

Does Coffee disagree with you? Probably it does! Then try Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. "Health Coffee" is a clever combination of parched cereals and nuts. Not a grain of real Coffee, remember, in Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, yet its flavor and taste matches closely old Java and Mocha Coffee. If your stomach, heart, or kidneys can't stand Coffee drinking, try Health Coffee. It is wholesome, nourishing, and satisfying. If safe even for the youngest child. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Charges Against Thaw.

The newspapers of Paris are devoting much space to the proceedings of the Thaw trial, in New York, and as a result a number of persons are coming forward anxious to testify to Thaw's alleged escapades in Paris, which, they declare, can only be explained on the ground that he was insane.

A woman from whom Thaw rented an apartment in Paris has visited Consul General Mason and recounted numerous episodes of Thaw's stay.

Another woman, who says she is an American, has informed the newspapers that she figured in the "bath-tub incident" to which reference was made in Evelyn Nesbit Thaw's testimony Thursday. This woman makes further allegations of maltreatment at the hands of Thaw, and declares that he gave her $2,000 to compensate for the injuries she sustained.

Piles of people have Piles. Why suffer from piles when you can use DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve and get relief. Nothing else so good. Beware of imitations. See that the name is stamped on each box. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater, & Sons, druggists.

Only a little cold in the head may be the beginning of an obstinate case of Nasal Catarrh. Drive out the invader with Ely's Cream Balm applied straight to the inflamed stuffed air-passage. Price 50c. If you prefer to use an atomizer, ask for Liquid Cream Balm. It has all the good qualities of the remedy in solid form and will rid you of catarrh or hay fever. No cocaine to breed a dreadful habit. No mercury to dry out the secretion. Price 75c, with spraying tube. All druggists, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.

Croup can positively be stopped in 20 minutes. No vomiting—nothing to sicken or distress your child. A sweet, pleasant, and safe Syrup, called Dr. Shoop's Croup Cure, does the work and does it quickly. Dr. Shoop's Croup Cure for Croup alone, remember. It does not claim to cure a dozen ailments. It's for Croup, that's all. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Guaranteed under the food and drugs act, June 30th, 1906. Serial number 1098.
